

DEBORAH MCLACHLAN

artist

I do art. That's who I am and how I live.

I was an art curator at the Gold Coast Art Centre, cafe arts for 18 years promoting emerging artists. Presently I facilitate life drawing at the Royal Queensland Art Society weekly. Numerous group and solo exhibitions over the Gold Coast and the Scenic Rim for the last 30 years. An Artist involved in 'Open Studios' for the Scenic Rim and have held three 'art for arts sake's' festivals at Beechmont. 2002 Saw artists David Groom, Kylie Ingold, Bronwyn Davies and myself, also Community and council involvement and support. established the first and only art gallery in the shire, which was housed at the old school site, headmasters building. A large exhibition was held with the artist from the broader Beaudesert Shire, which was a wonderful success.